Into the spider verse torrent download

This animated film starts with Peter Parker (voice of Chris Pine) introducing himself, as we know him, the friendly neighborhood of Spider-Man. By now, everyone knows how great he is, how about saving New York constantly, getting his own comics, cereal, and even a Christmas album. He has some things he's not proud of (emo dancing, for one), but he takes his duties as Spidey proud as he's the only one. We meet Brooklyn teen Miles Morales (voice of Shameik Moore) as he gets ready to start attending a private school. He lives with his father Jefferson (voice of Brian Tyree Henry) and mother Rio (voice of Luna Lauren Velez). Miles walks around his neighborhood greeting his friends and tagging street signs with stickers he made. Jefferson, a cop, catches Miles and escorts him to school in his cruiser. As they ride to the school, they see a news report about Spider-Man that Jeff isn't a fan of. When they arrive, Jeff miles says he loves him, but Miles fails to say it back. Jeff then uses his radio to force Miles in front of all the other students to say I love you back, embarrassing him. Miles gets into his schoolwork as he tries to adapt to this new environment. During one of his classes, he meets Gwen Stacy (voice of Hailee Steinfeld), who didn't immediately tell him who she is. Later, Miles sneaks out of his dorm room to visit his uncle Aaron (voice of Mahershala Ali), who is Jefferson's brother and a kind of black sheep because of his criminal activities. Miles tells him about Gwen, and Aaron tells him to do a shoulder touch to try to charm her. The two then go to tunnels near the subway so they can do some graffiti, since Aaron is fond of Miles's art. As Miles spray-paints the walls, a radioactive glitching spider crawls up his legs and bites his hand after Miles takes a picture of his work, but he only easily taps the spider from his hand before leaving with Aaron. The next day, Miles finds himself feeling different. He hears a voice in his head (which is accompanied by comic-book-style text boxes), his clothes barely fit, and he sweats profusely. He runs into Gwen, trying to make up a fake name when they properly introduce themselves. Miles tries to make the shoulder touch, but he only gets his hand firmly on Gwen's shoulder, and then her hair, leading them to go to the nurse for her to cut her hair off. Miles runs and hides in the man's office, getting everything fixed to him as he keeps freaking out. He climbs out the window and finds himself walking on the walls before running into the streets, amazed by his newfound powers and abilities. Miles later goes to the tunnel where the spider bit him. When he examines it, it starts glitching again. Not long after, Miles is hiding when his spider sense discovers danger. Spider-Man in as he is being pursued by Green Goblin (voice of Jorma Taccone). The Fight Match them under Fish Industries, where Wilson Fish/Kingpin (voice of Liev Schreiber) tries to start a Super Collider. Amid Spidey battling Goblin, he takes the time to get Miles out of injury mode. Spidey realizes Miles is just like him, just like the machine is on. Outside in the city, certain structures start to get strangely turned into other forms. There's a bang going on in the tunnel. Spidey is badly injured and Miles tries to help him, but Spidey tells him to hide before giving him a drive to close the Collider. Kingpin, Goblin, and another villain, The Prowler, gather around Spidey and remove his mask. He asks Kingpin not to restart Collider, even telling him to think of his family, but this angers Kingpin and he kills Spider-Man by slamming his fists down on him as Miles watches in horror. He runs to his parents, and he runs to hug Jefferson. The news breaks out that Spider-Man is dead and that he was Peter Parker. New Yorkers everywhere are devastated. Miles buys a costume (the store owner is the voice of Stan Lee, no less) before attending a memorial service for Peter, with many other fans attending dressed as the wall-crawler. Mary Jane (voice of Zoe Kravitz) delivers a eulogy for her husband, while Aunt May (voice of Lily Tomlin) stands solemnly in the back. Miles is inspired by MJ's words to take up the mantle as Spider-Man. He wants to test his powers, but he's not quite sure how to get them to work. He later visited Peter's grave, just as he is discovered by another man... Peter B. Parker (Jake Johnson). In his own words, this Peter tells us that in his universe he has been Spider-Man for years and is now an adult, but he has lost Aunt May and he was married to Mary Jane, but is now divorced because of him not being able to figure out his problems like Spidey, as well as him not wanting children, as she did. He became depressed and gained weight, and then collider turned on, which pulled him into this dimension. Now after finding Miles, he is knocked unconscious, leading Miles to try to swing away at him as police go after them, only to end up smashing in the street as people walk past them. Miles brings Peter somewhere for safety. He questions Peter about how it is possible that he is there alive when he guesses the alternative dimension theory correctly. Miles takes the drive that Peter of his universe gave him (which andre Peter calls a goober), but it is broken. Peter frees himself and takes the broken goober to try to find a new one so he can come home, which being in this dimension causes him to glitch and be unstable. But before Peter can leave on his own, Miles blames him for letting him participate so they can do things right together. Miles and Peter, dressed in their costumes, go to Alchemax Labs, where the data on the Collider is stored. As they try to find a way to sneak in, Kingpin and his henchman (Marvin Kronon Jones Jones and his top scientist (voice kathryn hahn). Kingpin's motive for running Collider is to be reunited with his wife Vanessa (voice of Lake Bell) and son Richard. Years earlier, they watched as he tried to kill Spider-Man, and they fled from him, only to be tragically hit by a truck. Miles and Peter manage to sneak into the lab and find the room with the computer. Miles starts to freak out again as he can't free himself from the ceiling, just as Kingpin and his scientist are outside. Miles also finds out that he can become invisible while he's afraid. The researcher then enters the room, forcing Peter to try to charm her. She's impressed to find Spider-Man alive, but only so she can kill herself. She then reveals her name to be Dr. Olivia Octavius, aka DOC OCK. She reveals her mechanical tentacles as she attacks Peter, but Miles grabs the computer so they can walk. They are chased by scientists out of the lab and into the woods. Guys swing through the trees as villains catch up, but Doc Ock gets webbed up by a third spider-person... Gwen. She tells Miles and Peter how she has also come from another dimension where she was bitten by a spider. There she saved her father's life, but she couldn't save Peter. The three of them then head out of the woods to get away. Doc Ock later goes back to Kingpin, who is very unhappy to find there are two more Spider-Men around. Miles, Peter, and Gwen to go Aunt May's home, where she is able to find out that Peter she sees before her is from another dimension. She takes them to her Peter's old secret hideout, which is full of various suits, gadgets and vehicles. There meet the three Spider-Man Noir (voice of Nicolas Cage), a black-and-white old-gangster-talking hero; Peni Parker (voice of Kimiko Glenn) and her robot SP//dr, which is powered by a radioactive spider; and Peter Porker, aka Spider-Ham (voice of John Mulaney), who was actually a spider bitten by a radioactive pig. All were drawn from their own dimensions and into Miles's world. They each plan to stay back and close the Collider with a new goober so the rest can come home, but Miles says it must be him as this is his dimension. When Peter tries to back him up by indicating the cool forces that Miles has, he is unable to turn them on and prove to the others that he is capable of helping. Miles becomes invisible, and he refuses to leave the cave. Miles goes to Aaron's home for help, just as Jefferson and Rio contact Aaron, as they haven't heard from Miles in a while. Miles finds Aaron's apartment empty but meets the prowler inside, causing him to become invisible again. Prowler speaks to Kingpin and removes his mask, revealing himself to be Aaron. Miles is horrified. He tries to get out of the apartment but is chased by Aaron throughout the city until he manages to evade him. Back at Aunt May's house, Miles reunites with other Spider-People to tell them that his uncle works for Unfortunately, Miles has led Prowler there, along with Doc Ock, Goblin, Tombstone, and Scorpion (voice of Joaquin Cosio). The villains attack, and Spider-People jump into action. Even Aunt May gets into it by defending her home. Prowler goes after Miles and chases him to the roof. Kingpin orders Prowler to finish Miles until Miles takes off his mask to reveal himself to his uncle. Aaron is horrified that he almost killed his nephew. As he backs down, Kingpin shoots Aaron in the back and then goes to Miles, but he swings out of there with his uncle. He takes Aaron to an alley where he's dying. Miles blames himself for what happened, but Aaron urges him to keep pushing forward. Jefferson finds Miles over Aaron's body and sends Miles on the run. Jeff then sees his brother and breaks down. Miles returns to his dorm room where the other Spider-People meet with him. They make his roommate faint from seeing them climbing the wall. Peter webs Miles up to his chair and takes the goober to go stop the Collider, telling Miles it's for his safety. When they're gone, Jeff comes to Miles' dorm room outside, but he can't answer thanks to the Internet. Jeff tells him about Aaron and just wants Miles to be okay. Miles then pick up the strength to bring his power to free himself. Miles goes back to Aunt May's and gets the original Spider-Man suit as he spray paints with dark colors. He then tests his powers more confidently as he swings around the city. The second Spider-People find Kingpin's gala where they are able to sneak in because the staff are wearing Spidey masks. Peter sees MJ and tried to express his guilt for leaving her, even though she doesn't know it's him or what he's talking about. They continue down to where Collider is, but Kingpin's minions find them and proceed to attack. Miles swings in and joins his comrades as they fight back. To make matters worse, the collider is activated, causing another earthquake across the city as dimensions begin to skew together. Spider-Man Noir takes on Tombstone, while Peni and SP//dr battle Goblin, and Spider-Ham beats up Scorpion with a cartoon hammer. Doc Ock goes after Gwen and Peter while Miles tries to shut Collider down. Minions are taken out, and Doc Ock is plowed by an inter-dimensional truck. Unfortunately, SP//dr is heavily damaged, leaving Peni devastated as Noir and Spider-Ham comfort her. She takes the spider back as they prepare to jump home. They say their goodbyes, and Peni goes first, followed by Noir and Spider-Ham. Gwen confirms her friendship with Miles before she goes home. Peter tried to stay back and help Peter, but Miles chooses to send Peter back so he can fix what he has to do in his world. Miles then goes for Collider, but Kingpin starts hitting back hard. He then begins to see a new Vanessa and Richard as dimensions begin to cross over. Just as Kingpin seems to overpower Miles, he sees Jefferson as he enters the area. Km Km himself up and using his power to blow Kingpin away and then send him webbed up against the button to close the Collider for good. Outside, Miles calls Jeff to tell him he's okay. He approaches him as Spider-Man and hugs him, letting him know he's doing a good job but not letting his dad know who he really is. Jeff then finds Kingpin webbed up and prepped for arrest. Miles now takes on his regular school duties while taking on his role as the new Spider-Man, serving a number of new fans across the city. Meanwhile in Peter's dimension, he heads off to patch things up with MJ. As Miles settles into his room for a nap, a dimensional portal opens and he hears Gwen's voice calling him. There is a dedication to Stan Lee and Steve Ditko. After the closing credits, there is a scene in which Miguel O'Hara / Spider-Man 2099 (voice of Oscar Isaac) learns about the other Spider-People from his assistant Lyla (voice of Greta Lee). He travels to Earth 67, where he ends up in a strange pointing argument with spider-man 1960s comic book. Cartoon.
